

Contract

The conditions mentioned below apply on Jellen T'Jaecx, hereafter called the coach, and
, hereafter called the client.

The coach guarantees the client discretion and confidentiality.

The coach places the goals and needs of the clients central.

The client can always contact the coach between two sessions in case of personal need. This communication is free and happens via e-mail (jellenc@hotmai.com).

A session can be interrupted due to force majeure or emergencies. It can also be interrupted by the coach and/or client, in case they no longer feel comfortable or consider the continuation of the session as no longer necessary. The client only pays for the time consumed.

The sessions take place in Belgium at Voskenslaan 36A in Gent or at Groups practice Ringoir (Kleine Peperstraat 1 in Sint-Niklaas). If agreed beforehand, it is possible to meet on location or to meet via video consultation.

Mobile phones will not be used during the sessions.

The sessions ends on the agreed time, even if the clients is late. The session will be automatically cancelled if the client is 30 minutes too late. The client will still be charged for the entire session.

The client is obliged to notify at least 48h before the session if he/she can't be present. If not, the client will be charged for the entire session. Exception: force majeure.

Payments are executed by bank transfer (BE65 9733 8473 7396), Payconiq or in cash.

The coach and client recognise to have read and understand the statements of above. This is confirmed by signing this document.
